THE CALEDONIAN CO.

A Happy New Year! Make few resolutions, and then keep what you make.
Keep a diary. Ditto a cash account.We take off our hat to the bravery of Sheriff George F. Finch of Melndoe and his posse, who entered the Butterfield house at Sutton, Sunday morning, expecting to meet face to face a heavily armed murderer waiting to kill anyone in sight. It takes real courage at such a time, and the dozen men that did it, including officers and private citizens, fully expected that some of their number would be killed before the murderer was captured.P. S. Lest anyone thinks this is written in a boastful spirit we add this postscript to say that when the attack on the house was made, the editor of the CALEDONIAN, with two others, remained in the barn, remembering the promise in the Good Book that the meek shall inherit the earth.

Railroad Pension System.

The Grand Trunk railroad, which has its eastern terminus in Portland, Me., will put into effect today a pension system claimed to be the most comprehensive and one of the most generous in the country, embracing every employee of the road in the United States and Canada. The railroad will finance all the details of the scheme, not leaving any assessment on the employees.As a nucleus with which to support the plan the company has appropriated a sum of $200,000 for the purpose, the interest of which with $75,000 additional, if necessary, each year, will be turned over to supporting the terms of the plan.Under the new rule, a compulsory retiring age is fixed at 65, while any employee who has served the company for 15 years or more will be entitled to a pension on a graduated scale. A minimum pension has been fixed at $200 while there is no maximum.In addition to this provision is made for employees who have been disabled in the company's service and also for men dismissed without cause under 65, but have not served over 15 years.

Married on Christmas Eve.

Groom a Clergyman and Lecturer.

The Brockton, Mass., Enterprise of December 26 contained the following notice of a wedding in which many Vermonters will be interested;Standing under a canopy of green and mistletoe from which was suspended a white bell, Miss Marion Emily Clark, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ezra W. Clark, became the bride of Rev. Ora Samuel Gray of Amherst, at the home of the bride's parents, 325 North Main street, Tuesday evening. The wedding was a quiet, informal affair and the ceremony was performed by Rev. George S. Chase of South Hanson, in the presence of the immediate family and a few intimate friends. Rev. Mr. Chase was a pastor at Derby, Vt., for five years, while Dr.
Clark was practicing there and is an intimate friend of the family.The bride was gowned in embroidered white mull and carried a bunch of white roses, which she threw to her friends from the stairs as she was about to leave the house on her wedding trip.Miss Carrie Chase of South Hanson played the wedding march as the bridal party entered the back parlor, where the ceremony was performed. Messrs.
Armour and Everett Clark, cousins of the bride, were the ushers. Before the ceremony Dr. and Mrs. Clark and the bride-to-be received. After the ceremony ices and cake were served in the dining room by Miss Agnes Hartwell, assisted by Misses Genevieve and Dora May Clark, sisters of the bride, and Miss Anna Clark, a cousin. The house was decorated in holly, palms and ferns.The bride was presented in the public schools of Derby, Vt., Derby Academy and graduated from Boston University in the class of '99. Since then she has been teaching at Derby Academy, Montpelier Seminary, and last year at the Passaic, N. J., high school.The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
I. K. Gray of Wheelock, Vt. He is a graduate of the Lyndon, Vt. Institute and Drew Theological Seminary at Madison, N. J. He has been engaged in lecturing for Chautauquas and Y. M. C.
A's under the direction of a lecturing bureau for the past two winters, chiefly in the middle west. This work he will continue this winter. Prior to this engagement he was a Methodist pastor at Amherst. His bride will accompany him for the present in his tour of lectures.
The wedding trip will be to Vermont, after spending a few days in New York.It fills the arteries with rich, red blood, makes new flesh, and healthy men, women and children. Nothing can take its place; no remedy has done so much good as Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea 35c, Tea or Tablets. Flint Bros. and F.

Another Victory.

Centrals of Lowell Taken In—East Boston C. L. A. Today—Off on Big Trip Tomorrow.Bucky Lew's team, the Centrals of Lowell, Mass., formed the opposition to Company D at the Armory, Friday night and after a hard up-hill contest they were obliged to carry away the short end of a 70 to 19 game. The game was rather better than it looks on paper, as at several stages the visitors, especially Fields, Lew and Healey, showed good form and did some very creditable passing and team work, but the baskets seemed to be out of range for them.
Doyle and Henschel had hard luck in shooting also, and had they caged anywhere near all the tries the tally man would be cutting notches yet. Schock got away with eight goals and had the dusky guard chasing phantoms before the finish. Henschel stowed away a couple out of his numerous chances, besides keeping Tighe away from the baskets. Field and Steinburg played even up to the third period, when Skip caged two baskets while the local man was busy elsewhere. Matthews and Doyle however were honor men in the scoring, the former with the big string of 14 and Pat's string showing 11. This was the Company's last game before the big series with East Boston and everybody was busy dopping up their chances against Jack Fox's aggregation from the showing at that time, and the fans are agreed if the playing of the first and third periods can be used as a standard, that the Noddle Islanders have got something coming to them that Santa Claus overlooked.

The summary:

ST. JOHNSBURY
Doyle, r f Schock, l f
Matthews, c
Steinburg, r b Henschel, l b
Score, St. Johnsbury 70, Lowell 19. Goals from floor, Matthews 14, Doyle 11, Schock 8, Healey 4, Henschel 2, Lew 2, Fields 2, Donnelly. Point on foul, Lowell. Referee, Gunn.
Time, three 15 min. periods. Attendance, 575.

For the Fans.

Ben Vaughn, who plays with East Boston C. L. A., is a larger man than Alhara, is very fast and a good shot.
Watch Toby.Portsmouth plays at Newport, Dec.
31, and from the looks of the scores that are being piled up against them they are all to the bad.A series of seven games is on between Company D and East Boston C. L. A., and it should be something worth noticing before the end.Springfield are holding their own throughout and showing steady improvement. Fans here will appreciate this as it will make the series more interesting.Interest in the game at Fitchburg is declining and they are playing but a few games. Company D are booked there on January 4.Newport Naval Reserves were defeated by East Boston C. L. A. in their first game away from home this year. It was the first defeat of the season for the Newporters.Attendance at Gloversville is falling off lately and it is being attributed to the fact that they have a playing manager.Large crowds are expected from all the surrounding towns on New Year's Day to take in the East Boston game.
Already orders have come in from as far as Claremont and White River Junction.Time works great changes in basket ball as well as in other things. Last year the same Lowell bunch gave one of the best exhibitions of the year. They were playing in their own class then.Attleboro is strengthening their team for their game with Company D on Thursday, Jan. 2.Company D have a tough trip laid out for them after the two games today.
They play in three states and meet the Gloversville team three times and also the Newport Naval Reserves while away.Central Caledonia Supervision at some central place to which each town in the district will send its two best spellers.

Save This Anyway.

Here is a simple home-made mixture as given by an eminent authority on Kidney diseases, who makes the statement in a New York daily newspaper, that it will relieve almost any case of Kidney trouble if taken before the stage of Bright's disease. He states that such symptoms as lam back, pain in the side, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night, painful and discolored urination, are readily overcome. Here is the recipe; try it;

Loved Mrs. Atherton's Forefathers.

A story is being told of a woman who met Gertrude Atherton at the recent reception in her honor of the San Francisco Spinners, and tried hard to say something "fit." As the line was passing along, this woman whispered to her companion, "Oh, do tell me the name of the book she wrote—something or other about family descent," but the other said she couldn't recall it, either.
Just as they reached the author of "Ancestors," the woman apparently remembered, and her face beamed. "Oh, Mrs. Atherton!" she said, as they shook hands, "I can't tell you how I loved your "Forefathers!"

A Well-Advertised Savings Bank.

A large list of depositors, well scattered over its legitimate territory, is one of the best advertising mediums a Savings Bank can have. Such being the case, the Hyde Park Savings Bank must be well advertised in the State of Vermont.
Read what the Lyndonville Union-Journal says:Ex-Gov. C. S. Page takes about as much pride in the growth and success of the Lamotte County Savings Bank as he does in the growth and success of his calfskin and hide business. Gov. Page is the president of this bank. It was started with the idea of not loaning a dollar outside of Vermont and this principle has been strictly followed. The bank is successful financially because the people have confidence in the business ability and integrity of the man at the head of it. If this were not so the bank would not have depositors from practically every town in the state.Commencing January, 1908, this Bank will pay four per cent compounded semi-annually on all deposits large and small alike; will pay taxes on all sums up to $2000, and will issue pass-books with no limits as to times of withdrawal or other restrictions or limitations save those common to all Vermont Savings Banks. Deposits made on or before Feb.
15th will draw interest from Jan. 1st, those after Feb. 15th April 1st.Have You Paid Your Taxes?Just a Reminder from the Town and Village Tax Collector.The collector has extended all possible courtesy to delinquent taxpayers for poll, personal and real estate taxes for 1906 and all years previous.Notice is hereby given them that it is the intention to immediately take up each case and proceed to collect according to law. Therefore it is earnestly recommended that any individual who has not fulfilled his duty in regard to the payment of the above taxes should do so immediately or notify the Collector why the matter has not been attended to.

1907 TAXES.

The attention of the taxpayers of poll, personal and real estate, is called to the fact that the taxes of 1907 were due Oct. 15, 1907, and the Collector suggests that it would save trouble and expense to such taxpayers as are delinquent if they would discharge their obligations at once.

The treasury is in urgent need of the money and must have the same.
